

The competition!

We need you to design a totally original logo for our Diversity Panel that expresses themes of inclusion, equality and making a difference.

It needs to include the words 'The Diversity Panel' but its up to you whether to use pictures, photos, colours or anything else you think of!

Who are we?

The Diversity Panel are a group of people who help fight for people's rights. They work hard to stop things like bullying against gay or black people. They help organisations including the police, the prisons and the courts to make sure they are treating everyone with respect

Be Quick!
closing date is 31st July 2011!

The prize!

The winner who designs the best logo will get to spend a day helping the police fight crime! You can meet the dogs used for finding drugs and bombs, check out the horses and their riot gear, have a ride in the fast police car and see inside the police helicopter!*

Plus your winning design will be seen on all our letters, leaflets and posters!

Runner up will receive a £25 iTunes gift card

Deadline: July 31st Please email designs to: marie.jlneale@hotmail.com

*All subject to availability on the day but we will try our best to show you everything
