DIVERSITY SCORECARD

2011/12 QUARTER 1 (TO JUNE 2011)

SPECIFIC DETAILS

Population data

Data for each quarter is examined, and compared to the 2001 population census data. Communities within Humberside have changed dramatically since 2001, however Police Criminal Evidence Act Codes of Practice direct that census data be used for comparison. Population figures are believed to be up to between double and three times the 2001 census figures. This should be borne in mind during the scrutiny process
Up to date census figures are due to be published in 2011.

Stop Search data and Stop & Search leading to arrest

Highlight this Quarter

The number of Stop Searches force wide and across all divisions has fallen on the last quarter.
With the exception of B Division the percentage of BME stops has decreased on the last quarter, however the B Division figures are very small.
With the exception of A Division the percentage BME stops exceed the percentage BME population; however the numbers involved are relatively small.
Force wide and in B and D Division there appears to some disparity between the percentage white and BME arrests. The higher percentage being BME arrests, however the numbers involved are small.

DCC's Scrutiny Panel

Generally the number of stop searches have fallen this quarter. The 28.6% representing BME arrests in B Division appears high however this only relates to 2 in number.

Disposal methods for detainees

Highlight this Quarter

This quarter the number of white prisoners dealt with has increased by over 400, the number of BME prisoners is similar to the last quarter.
The percentage disposals are broadly similar for white and BME, with the exception of to court (not on remand) with a 5.5% difference and NFA with a 9.2% difference.

The 39.2% representing NFA for BME prisoners indicates a 4.4% increase this quarter.

DCC's Scrutiny Panel

It was noted that these figures are also monitored nationally by The Criminal Justice Board.

Force tickets issued

Highlight this Quarter

All tickets issued are above the BME percentage population.
Generally the total number of tickets issued has decreased this quarter with the exception of PNDs and the Number on courses.
The BME percentages have increased for Endorsable, VDRs and courses; however the numbers involved are small.
Force wide the number of unknown ethnicities have decreased.

DCC's Scrutiny Panel

It was noted that people caught using mobile phones whilst driving are now being offered attendance on a driver improvement course. There are no significant concerns with the figures.

Chief Inspector Johnstone noted that the decrease in unknown ethnicity is positive.

Racially & Religiously aggravated crime

Highlight this Quarter

This quarter there has been an increase force wide and across all division in the number of racially and religiously aggravated crimes recorded.
With the exception of C Division there has been an increase in detections rates, however this is due to the recording anomaly in relation to C Division in the last quarter, C Division have seen a similar increase this quarter if compared to the all of the previous quarters.
All of the Divisions are exceeding the Police Authority targets this quarter.
